Featuring Early Intervention Technical Assistance (EITA) Consultants and P3D Family Leaders

Mary Anketell, will lead a discussion on the federal and state government’s role in identifying funding for early intervention, maintaining taxpayer accountability, determining program success and monitoring child progress.

Kim Herb, will demonstrate, discuss and show effective use of family video to enhance learning. Participants will practice using iPads, phones and flip cameras to record video and insert video in presentations. Videos produced that afternoon will later be presented to Bureau of Early Intervention Services Director Dr. James Coyle and used in upcoming trainings.

Use your own device or borrow one of ours.

This workshop is designed for family members of children eight years old and under who have participated in early intervention services.

Please join us for this wonderful day of networking and learning.

Through participating in this training you will:

1. Learn about government accountability and funding
2. Receive updates on early childhood/early intervention initiatives and resources
3. Practice and gain tips using video to ‘tell your story’
4. Discover upcoming opportunities to put your P3D skills to work
5. Network with other families

Learn about EI activities related to:

- Autism
- Inclusion
- Behavior
- Home Based Coaching
